High school holds many aspects for all different types of people. Perhaps some of our greatest knowledge is gained in those three years. To stop and look back on the happy times always brings fond memories. As we look back we must also look ahead. For if we are truly to grow and experience life to its fullest, we must continuously gain knowledge and wisdom and build upon what we already know.

Activities

Spare time . . . everybody uses it

Today it seems like we will never forget all the happenings and headliners of the year. So many things took place in and out of Roosevelt during 1976-1977 that will mark this year different from all the rest. New clothing styles, hit movies, songs, election, and several national news events swept the nation to carve its own piece of history. Right now these things are fresh on everyone's minds, but ten or twenty years from now, who will remember? Because high school life goes beyond students' faces, names, and teachers, the Roundup staff has selected those major items we feel worth remembering to help you reminisce back over this school year.

1976-1977: The year that

- Peter Frampton, Stevie Wonder, Fleetwood Mac, Kansas, Boz Scaggs, Boston, Rod Stewart, and Wings sang their way to millions of record sales.
- "A Star Is Born," "Rocky," "King Kong," "Network," "All the Presidents Men," and "Black Sunday" hit the movie screens with phenomenal success.
- Farrah Fawcett-Majors and "Charles Angels" took the country by surprise with dazzling beauty.
- Jimmy Carter narrowly beat incumbent Gerald Ford to become our 39th president in an election that was called the closest in history. Carter ended up with 51% of the vote, Ford 48%, and Eugene McCarthy 1%. TV debates were also used between Carter and Ford for the first time since the 1960 elections.
- Alex Haley's "Roots" swept the world by book and TV.
- The albums "Frampton Comes Alive," "Wings Over America," and "Stevie Wonder: Songs In the Key of Life" became the biggest selling records this year.
- Bruce Jenner, once from Lamoni, Iowa rose to fame and was crowned Athlete of the Year by winning the grueling decathlon event in the summer '76 Olympics.
- The western drought, southern floods, and the worst winter in recent history, destroyed much of our land, people, and industry.
- The anti-discrimination code of "Title IX" brought national attention to our annual Daddy-Daughter Dinner and threatened its termination.
- In his first months in office, President Carter granted amnesty to Viet Nam draft evaders and also held his own radio talk show for listeners to phone in questions for him to answer.
- The high price of coffee left many Americans drinking tea.
- Washington DC was terrorized by Muslim force for almost 48 hours.
- Nadia Comaneci received the first perfect score of 10 points in the gymnastics event during the summer '76 Olympics.
- A new desegregation plan hit the Des Moines schools.
- Two 747 jumbo jets collided on the ground of the Canary Islands airport causing aviation's worst disaster in history with over 575 victims and only 60-65 survivors.
- Many old clothing fashions crept back into the scene such as vests and vest chains, blazers, button down shirt collars, gauchos, boots, straight leg pants, three piece suits, hats, suspenders, and mandarin stand up collars and tiny one-button cuffs on women's bouses.

So that was the year that was. Next year things will change and everything we just lived through will become history. Now you can remember at least a small part of the events that helped shape the year.

Many activities fill Homecoming week; Cindi Abrams receives queen honors

The week of October 25-29 was designated "Homecoming week" and was filled with activities including sock day, blue-white day, hat day, jersey day, and the mum sales.

The highlights of the week, however, came at the end with students gathering in the auditorium for a jubilant pep assembly led by enthusiastic cheerleaders, mimes, Riderettes and the band. Senior Cindi Abrams was crowned Homecoming Queen by the co-captains of the football team.

That evening, in spite of the constant rain, a car rally led Rider fans to the Williams football stadium for the Homecoming game against North. Julie Sandler was the winner of a gift certificate for the best decorated car.

At half-time, the Queen and her attendants were escorted around the field in antique cars to accent the theme "Just An Old Fashioned Homecoming."

The dance was held the next night in the gym. Seniors Sara Froyd and Shelly Stetson and junior Sue Zuckert planned the dance. The group, arranged by Don Hoy, played music from the big band era.

Homemade ice cream and cotton candy were sold in some of the booths to create an old fashioned atmosphere.

"Madwoman of Chaillot" proves a worthwhile challenge

"The Madwoman of Chaillot," presented November 12 and 13 in the Roosevelt auditorium was a technical as well as theatrical challenge for the Roosevelt Drama Department. This play was written by the well known French writer, Jean Giradoux. High school students have rarely presented this play since it involved two completely different sets and a large cast.

Jane Voigts held the lead role as Countess Aurelia. The other three madwomen were portrayed by Leesa Christensen, Cathy Riddley, and Heather Stanfield.

Mr. Holcomb was in charge of the set design, as well as other technical aspects of the play. The director, Mr. R.C. Anderson, felt that the difficult roles were portrayed extremely well by the cast. He said that the overall production was a rewarding experience for everyone involved.

Drama club continues brilliant stage tradition

Members of Drama Club earn a minimum of ten points by doing at least fifty hours of work in plays or as members of production crews. The initiation for new members is a formal affair, as this club is affiliated with the international Thespians Society.

Mr. R. C. Anderson, sponsor, says the purpose of the club is to create interest in plays and drama.

The 25 members are active in all phases of plays here at Roosevelt, and occasionally produce an original play to add interest to the club.

The officers included Mike Higgins, president; Jane Voigts, vice-president; Melinda Haag, secretary; Ted Johnson, treasurer; and Cathy Riddley, scribe.

Donna Smith's makeup skills transform Melinda Haag into Aunt Abby Brewster of the "Arsenic and Old Lace" cast.

Budding dramatists create own musical

The Music Theater class rounded out its year with a show on May 13 entitled "From Broadway to Hollywood." The class, which met sixth hour every day, was under the co-direction of Mr. Roger Anderson and Mr. Delbert Schiebel. The show was planned, produced, and executed by the students with the help of a coordinating committee made up of Mr. Anderson, Mr. Schiebel, Melinda Haag, Cathy Riddley, and Nancy Anderson.

The students chose their own solo, duet, or group numbers, acquired the music, choreographed the number, and provided their own costumes. Three chorus numbers were presented by the entire group.

The purpose of the Music Theatre Class is to expose the students to the techniques in producing a musical theatrical show.

Mimes captivate RHS audiences

The Roosevelt Mimes were kept busier than ever this year with appearances at Homecoming and Spree activities and pep assemblies.

Other Mimes performances outside of the school included church group spots, playing at the Arts Fair, The Iowa State Fair and Parent Faculty Club meetings. The main event for the Mimes was the annual Mime Night, held May 30 starring the whole cast. There were several skits put on by different groups of the Mimes throughout the evening. The short pantomimes included both old and new spots in the show.

The Mimes also helped out IPBN (Iowa Public Broadcasting Network)

by promoting Friends Week on that station. Answering phones, taking pledges, and taping a series of promotional television spots were all a part of the Mimes' job.

Senior Joel Kiess was the Mastermime and leader of the troop. The other mimes were Seniors Leesa Christensen, Lydia Matthews, David Miller, Craig Canine, Jim Hansen, Cathy Riddley, Jane Voigts; and Juniors Jon Jones, Lori Utterback, Diane Norris and Laura Reese. The sponsor of the group was Mr. Everett Craft.

Seven seniors left the group and four juniors will return next year with those chosen in the spring.

Cheerleaders aim to heighten spirits

Four cheerleading squads, sponsored by Mrs. Caroline Egli and Miss Margaret Maloney, cheered the Roosevelt teams on to many victories.

The eight member football and swimming cheerleaders, led by captain Shelley Martin, cheered all fall and winter, decorated lockers, and cheered at pep assemblies.

Boys and girls varsity and JV basketball cheerleaders cheer from two to four games a week. The eight member squad is captained by Lu Ann Ray.

Wrestling and cross country cheerleaders are busy all winter and spring. Captain Cindy Garner heads a five member squad that also decorates lockers.

This was the second year for sophomore basketball cheerleaders. The six member squad, headed by captain Daryl Fingerman, was started to relieve the schedule of varsity cheerleaders. The team won a first place award in their division at a clinic in Pella, Iowa

The Roosevelt Rowdies assure the team that "We're number one!"

Varsity wrestling and cross country cheerleaders: Deeann Arthurs, Cindy Garner, Kirsten Pierce, Betsy Stuart, and Jane Stacy.

Disney World parade highlights trip to Florida for Marching 100+

A trip to Orlando, Florida during spring vacation parading through Disney World highlighted the year for the Roosevelt Roughriders Marching 100+.

The group, composed of instrumentalists, Riderettes, Color Guard and Flaggies provided halftime entertainment for football fans and was an added feature to many parades, including the Drake Relays parade, and marching as the honor band among 25 other bands in the Northern Iowa Bicentennial Celebration.

Rusty Snyder, garbed as a Roughrider in white flare pants, a navy satin shirt and a Roughrider hat held the position of drum major, leading the band across football fields and down city streets.

During November and December, band members were putting pressure on friends, relatives, neighbors and strangers to support the band by purchasing oranges, grapefruit, and cheese or by coming to a Haunted House in the band room during Halloween time.

Band president Doug Jones commented, "I think we stumbled onto a gold mine when we started selling fruit two years ago. This year, we made about $4000 profit on the project. It's quite a bit of hard work and bookkeeping, but well worth it to help pay for the Florida trip."

What crazy fool would stay up for 24 hours to play his instrument with other band members with a mere 10 minute hourly break? This fund raising project brought in a combined total of $3000 for willing members.

The trip lasted one week, including the long, tiring three day bus trip each way. After marching in Disney World, the band members got to spend the day enjoying the rides and sights and visiting with the Disney characters.

Soaking the March sun rays by the hotel pool, sunning on Smyrna beach, a tour of Sea World, and a bar-b-que on the beach all added to a most enjoyable trip.

The trip and many other band activities were made possible through support and contributions of the RHS Instrumental Music Boosters who held a Spaghetti Supper, Ice Cream Social and other fund raising projects to cover uniform expenses and many other incidentals.

During the winter months, the marching band converted to concert band and symphonic band, directed by Mr. Larry Green. State contest was held at Hoover High School where the Symphonic band received a "1" rating from each of the three judges, a feat mastered by only one other Des Moines high school.

Instrumentalists widen range of performances

Eight students represented Roosevelt as All-state instrumentalists and one student was selected as an All-State vocalist after auditioning in October for a group of high school and college music teachers from around the state.

Juniors Jane Miller and Barb McKenzie, and sophomore Forest Stewart played in the All-State Band. Included in the All-State Orchestra were seniors Kendall McKoy and Anne Feillman; juniors Suzanne McDaniel and Katherine MacKinnon; and sophomore Kalon Sarby. Senior Mike Higgins was the All-State vocalist.

Junior Dee Ann Arthurs was the head of the Color Guard. These girls performed with the Marching Band, carrying six flags representing among others, the Iowa flag, the American flag, and the Bicentennial flag. They, too, combined with the Riderettes and Flaggies as a part of the total show when the band marched at football and basketball games, and in parades.

Row 3: Julie Tennant, Twyla Lee, Cindy Lumadue, Kirsten Pierce, Sandy McNeal, Cathy Boresi, and Mari Bemisdarfer.

Drill teams enhance band

The Roosevelt Riderettes kept busy by performing at home football and basketball games, parades, and a trip to Florida with the Marching Band.

Head Riderette Kris Swanson and most of the other Riderettes attended a November clinic, where they learned new techniques and three new routines to use for their performances. These were put to use during two halftime performances at basketball games. Included was a routine to the theme from Swat, and one to the Mickey Mouse Club song, where the Riderettes posed as Mickey Mice.

Other officers included Peggy Stanger, vice head; Theresa Sinnwell, treasurer; and Tamie Wright, secretary.

The Flaggies, headed by senior Karen Krause, consisted of 10 girls from the band, who accompanied the Marching Band in its performances as a part of the whole show.

As a highlight to their routines, the girls started the season with new uniforms and seven new corps style flags, adding color and variety to the halftime entertainment. The larger flags also made it easier for the audience to see the show from the stands.

Clinics, contests, and festivals keep Jazz Band busy

Roosevelt's Jazz Band participated in seven festivals and clinics. They were winners at the Creston and Washington, Iowa contests and placed third in their district of the class AA. They qualified for the Iowa Jazz Championship.

Jazz Band performed at Sea World in Orlando, Florida and the Daddy Daughter Dinner at Roosevelt. Along with two formal concerts, they played at numerous private parties and conventions, including the Iowa School Board Association Convention at Veterans Memorial Auditorium.

Before this year, all jazz band practices had to be held outside school time. To allow for maximum rehearsal time, jazz band was added as a class meeting every day.

Among many other performances, the jazz band played at the Arts Fair.

Instrumentalists added to the Early Dawn

The Roosevelt swing choir, The Early Dawn, is a group of 20 vocalists and five instrumentalists; a new addition to the group. Under the direction of Mr. Delbert Schiebel the group, which meets at 7 a.m. two or three mornings a week, performs folk, popular music and show tunes for organizations in the Concert choir makes record

Roosevelt's Concert Choir tried something new this year. The seventy member group made a recording of their repertoire. They also sang at a local bank and for the 1977 commencement ceremonies. They held the traditional Christmas concert and had an exchange concert with some local junior high schools. The Treble Choir sang along with the Concert Choir everywhere but the commencement ceremonies.

On April 12, the All-West vocal concert was held. Roosevelt's Concert Choir and Treble Choir joined with the Hoover, Franklin, Merrill, and Callanan vocal groups for the concert.

Mr. Delbert Schiebel is the director of both choirs.

Fall Forum coordinates homecoming activities and keeps open campus privileges for students

Ted Brubaker came to the sock hop sponsored by Student Forum dressed accordingly.

Fall Student Forum was led by, president Mike Higgins with the aid of his officers Irving Isaacson, first vice-president; and Janet Mark, secretary. Activities included an open house in October, a Christmas party for Tiny Tots, and a 50's dance in the gym. Their biggest project was Homecoming, which consisted of an assembly, halftime entertainment at the game, and the dance itself.

Student Forum also took part in the Inner-City Student Council. The function of the Inner-City Council was to coordinate the activities of all the metropolitan high schools. Each of the high schools sent five representatives to the meetings once a month.

Melinda Haag served as the president of Inner-City Council as well as a Roosevelt representative. The other representatives were seniors Lisa Milligan and Pam Dickinson, juniors Jon Jones and Jennifer Vickery and sophomore Laurna Hansen.

Other projects this year included dances, fund drives and a petition to the school board to change the present grading system from numerals to letters. The Forum was also responsible for helping to keep the open campus policy at Roosevelt.

Spring tour gives juniors opportunity to tour United Nations

Each year, the Greater United Nations of Des Moines sponsors a trip to the United Nations in New York City and Washington, D.C. for junior students during spring vacation.

All interested juniors are requested to turn in an application in December and then approximately 150 of the applicants are selected to participate in the eight day tour.

Six Roosevelt students were chosen to visit the sights in New York and Washington, D.C. including the White House, Washington Cathedral, Arlington National Cemetery, Library of Congress, Ford's Theatre, Mount Vernon, the different monuments found in Washington, D.C., the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, National Archives, a tour of the F.B.I building, the Kennedy Center, and seeing a performance at the Kennedy Center.

The group also met with Iowa senators and congressmen for a brief question and answer period before touring and visiting the capitol and the rest of the mall area.

Sights in New York included the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building, and Rockefeller Center. The group of juniors also saw a Broadway play and a production at Radio City Music Hall and attended briefings with foreign delegates at the United Nations.

Guthrie Theater hosts 47 students

The 10th annual Guthrie Theater trip, sponsored by Mr. R. C. Anderson included 47 Roosevelt students. Each student paid $21 for the trip which covered the cost of the bus fare to Minneapolis and the tickets for two plays.

The students left on October 16 and returned back to Des Moines that same night after seeing the plays "Enemy of the People" by Henrik Ibsen and "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" by Tennessee Williams. The Guthrie trip is held to give students a chance to see famous plays on stage.

Foreign students explore new experiences

Foreign students from England to Iran traveled across the world to Des Moines to attend Roosevelt.

Senior Pearl Pedergrana came from Kantons Schule Winterthur, Switzerland.

She noted that high schools in Switzerland are much more specialized and more like our colleges.

Angela Joan Smith is from Camberly, England. In England, she would have started college. Angela said that London schools are more formal than they are here.

Knowing only a little English made classes more difficult for Claudia Araujo, but she liked the challenge.

Claudia is originally from Peruambuco-Recile, Brazil. She began attending Roosevelt during the second semester.

Marie Barillas, the 17-year-old student from Guatemala, said that what she liked best about Des Moines was that there is much less violence here than in her hometown. Marie will return to Guatemala at the end of March, but wishes to return to the United States again.

The plans of Hossein Alavi, sophomore, are to be graduated from high school and go to college in the United States. After that he will return to his family in Iran.

Many students and teachers enjoy summer in Europe

For 85 Roosevelt students, the summer of 1976 included a five-week tour through Europe from July 6 to August 9 with the Foreign Study League program.

This was the eighth summer the FSL program has been in operation at Roosevelt. The group came to a total of 123, including the advisors and students from other schools and towns. Each summer, Roosevelt has had the largest group involved in FSL of any school in the United States.

The schedule included visits to six countries and 14 cities. The main stops were Rome, Florence, and Venice, Italy; Athens, Greece; Oberhalm, Austria; Munich, Germany; Paris and Caen, France; and London, England.

The teachers from Roosevelt who went as advisors included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Craft, Mr. and Mrs. George Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. Al Comito, Mrs. Marian Kempkes, Mr. Herb Hantz, and Mr. Dick Treman, the coordinator of the trip.

French Club is largest RHS club with 123 members

French Club, the largest club at Roosevelt with 123 members set a new record by earning $142.46 at the annual gourmet sweet tooth bake sale in October.

The money earned at the bake sale helped to pay for the charter bus to Ames for a French dinner at Aunt Maude's Restaurant.

Also were various Sunday suppers, where members could practice the art of French cooking while speaking French at the same time.

One of the highlights of the year was a Holiday Party at which members prepared and ate gourmet French foods. The club held a dinner at La Creperie in West Des Moines and attended a French Play at Drake University. The club also attended the fall play at Roosevelt by French author Jean Giradoux entitled "The Madwoman of Chaillot" which was preceded by a French supper.

The officers were President; Janet Mark, First Vice-President; Sue VerSteeg, Second Vice-President; Joan O'Harra, secretary; Diane Norris, and Treasurer; Cindi Abrams.

During Spring vacation, Mr. Thelen and five club members took part in a trip to France sponsored by the Intercultural Student Experiences in Minneapolis.

A paella party in December and a picnic in the spring highlighted the activities held by the Spanish Club sponsored by Mr. Fred Pratt.

The club raised money through a bake sale at the Arts Fair and two other bake sales in the student center.

El Patio was the sight for dinner in the spring as the club members dined in a foreign atmosphere eating Mexican food.

Meetings were held once or twice monthly to make plans for the parties and bake sales.

Amy Seaman supports the German Club by purchasing some cookies.

The German Club, headed by president Desda Saunders, vice-president Laveta Anderson, and treasurer Libbe Bolton, kept busy throughout the year with several money making projects.

They started out with the club members selling imported candy from Germany. In January, a few of the members ventured to Audubon, Iowa for an overnight convention. While at the convention, the members met and conversed with exchange students from Germany.

Later in the year, several of the German students visited Germany under the Intercultural Student Experiences program.

The club's sponsor is Herr Graham.

GRAND BALLROOM

Senior girls put on Holiday Dance free to entire school

The senior girls donated almost $900 to make the annual Holiday Dance a success. The dance was held in the Hotel Fort Des Moines Grand Ballroom on December 22 from 9-12 p.m. Music was provided by Midwest Express.

Seniors Andi Hirsch and Sandra Kelley were the co-chairmen of the Holiday Dance. They were helped by committee chairmen Ellen Kelly, Stephanie Stone, Betsy Sturat, and Susan Vickery; in addition to all the senior girls who donated up to $25 apiece. The donations were used to rent the ballroom so that no ticket sales were necessary, and to send out invitations to everyone at school. One highlight of the dance was the drawing for doorprizes at intermission. Over $100 in prizes was collected from many stores and restaurants.

Leaders hold car wash and pumpkin contest

The Leader's Club started out the year with the initiation of twelve sophomores and juniors to make a total of 46 girls in the club.

Fall officers included president Shelly Stetson, vice-president Heather Cameron, secretary Marva Engelen, and treasurer Linda Perry.

Projects included potlucks, supporting the girls' athletic teams, and a pumpkin carving contest. At the end of the day, the pumpkins were sent to Younkers Rehabilitation Center.

The spring officers were Shelley Martin, president; Susan Hogan, vice president; Gayle Wallace, secretary; and Colleen Mazzoli, treasurer.

The club also held a potluck March 15 for the Sharks, in honor of their annual pageant. Other spring activities were a car wash and a progressive dinner.

'Arsenic' entertains RHS playgoers

The indestructible "Arsenic and Old Lace" was revived by the drama department February 25 and 26, with the usual hilarious results.

The antics of the old maid sisters who speed men to heaven with elderberry wine poison, and their zany brother who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt, kept the audiences roaring.

Joel Kiess and David Miller provided the villainous treat, and Mike Higgins was the sane nephew who kept the suspense rolling. Melinda Haag and Leesa Christensen were the do-good poisoners.

Preparation and rehearsal for the large cast and crew went on for six weeks, under the direction of Mr. R. C. Anderson. Carlene Holt and Cathy Riddley were student directors.

Debate team success continues; place third in state tournament

Mrs. Donna Siers called it "a rebuilding year" for her debate team, as the majority of the students were juniors and sophomores. However, the debaters finished third in the state tournament, which does not exactly classify them as just rebuilders.

Junior Brad Carpenter qualified for the national contest to be held in Seattle, Washington this summer, by winning the original oratory event last March in Iowa City. Last year Brad won the oratory event at the national level, and hopes to repeat it this time.

Also placing in districts were Suzanne McDaniel, second in the women's extemp event, and Burns Stanfield, second in the men's extemp event.

Katherine MacKinnon placed second in prose and poetry interpretation and also came in third in dramatic interpretation. Heidi Fatland finished second in humorous interpretation.

Mrs. Siers said she was looking forward to a talented team next year since a lot of her debaters will return in the fall.

Afro club begins first year at RHS

The Afro Club was organized during the fall semester, 1976, at the request of several students who felt they would like to receive more career information. Pursuing this purpose, the club has presented two speakers; Mr. Al Correll, Executive Director of the Human Rights Commission of Greater Des Moines, and Mr. Monroe Colston of the Urban Affairs Department of the Chamber of Commerce. The club has also sponsored two successful bake sales, one of which was a first at Roosevelt, a sandwich sale.

Another highlight of the year was a Jazz Concert sponsored by sophomore Keith Morris, and his "Soulful Blacks." Coming events for next fall include more career oriented programs, and a talent show. The club ended the year with a pizza dinner.

Ski Club travels to slopes of Vail Colorado

Vail was the sight this winter for 74 students who participated in the annual Ski Club trip. The vacation was from February 18 to 21 and cost each person $110, which included bus transportation, lodging, and lift tickets.

The slopes ranged in variety from beginning, through intermediate, to expert. The only problem was a shortage of snow for the base, which most of the resorts suffered from all season.

The skiers pulled out of the Roosevelt parking lot late Friday afternoon and drove straight through twelve hours to the lodge. From there, they manned their ski clothes and equipment and headed straight for the slopes. At the days end, they unpacked and the following two and a half days were spent skiing. Then came the return home and everyone was back at school by eight o'clock on Tuesday morning.

The officers of the club were Kurt Peck and Bart Hicklin, co-presidents; Rita McBride, secretary; and Dan Roemer, treasurer. The chaperones were Mr. Pat Puetz and Mr. Dennis Johnson.

DECA students find leadership

The Distributive Education program involved 26 students working under the instruction of Mr. Ron Outcalt, sponsor. "The club is designed to help promote marketing and distribution as a career," Outcalt remarked.

Activities included participation in the State Delegate Assembly where the student state officers were elected. DECA members also attended both the area and state leadership conferences in which students competed against each other in their various job fields. Senior Karen Schaudt placed third in the state which enabled her to go to the National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, California.

Fund raising events were held to aid in paying the expenses for the conferences and for the Employee-Employer banquet held on April 26.

Office Education group is largest in city

Twenty-five juniors and seniors, sponsored by Mrs. Marjorie Crawford, made up the largest Office Education group in the city of Des Moines.

The students attended two office classes in the morning and in the afternoon. They all have clerical or office related jobs for which they receive school credit.

The Office Education group decides at the beginning of the year where they might like to be employed for the coming school year. With the help of Mrs. Crawford, they apply for different jobs at such places as banks, hospitals and junior high schools.

O.E.'s social projects included a Christmas party for the children at a convalescent home and a banquet for their employers.

Audio Visual Crew now handles minor equipment repairs

The eight member audio visual crew dept. kept busy maintaining equipment, taking care of minor repair jobs, including all soldering, and often helped students with media projects. The crew is responsible to know how to run all equipment used in the school.

According to Mrs. Lorraine Hutson, department head, AV has worked with more equipment now than ever in the past.

The video tape recording crew films and presents material for Roosevelt classes. They tape programs from television and live speakers to be played back to classes — primarily from the English and Social Science departments.

The sponsor, Mrs. Ruby Wells, said the debators, divers, and Marching Band are often recorded before they compete. Some sophomore English classes also make use of the VTR facilities.

The stage crew works for assemblies, school plays, and other productions involving the school auditorium. The crew is responsible for lighting and building the sets used. Mr. Art Holcomb is the sponsor.

The sound crew is also an important part of all productions at Roosevelt. One of their biggest jobs is to help with the sound at the annual Sharks pageant. The crew prepares, controls, and repairs all sound equipment used. Mr. Dennis Johnson is the sponsor.

Sharks turn pool into Academy Showplace

After initiating seven new members in the fall, the Sharks Club began work on their annual pageant presented on March 17, 18, and 19. The theme chosen was "A Night at the Academies." Craig Canine served as the Master of Ceremonies and mimes Jane Voigts and Lydia Matthews made several appearances throughout the show.

The pageant consisted of 12 numbers including a finale involving all of the sharks to the number "That's Entertainment." Senior soloist Sara Froyd, performed to the number "The Pink Panther." "Around the World in 80 Days" was chosen by Liz Moore and Janet Lindstrom for their duet. Two trios performed: Kim Book, Debbie McClure, and Carole Sargent chose "Charleston" for their number; Lu Ann Ray, Jackie West, and Cathy Whitmore selected "Shaft."

The officers presented a number together for the first time to the song

"Hello Dolly." The officers were Liz Moore, president; Jackie West, 1st vice-president; Janet Lindstrom, 2nd vice-president; Kim Book, secretary; Sara Froyd, treasurer; and Desda Saunders, junior treasurer. Liz was chosen as Outstanding Senior Shark by the 27 members. The club was sponsored by Miss Ann Miller.

Girls' Club leads the way with activities for everyone

A long enduring tradition came to an end with the abolishing of the Girls' Club and the formation of "R" Club. Called discriminatory, the club was forced to give up its previous format.

The year's most publicized event was the annual Daddy-Daughter Dinner held February 8. Making national news and hitting several large papers across the country, the possibility of this being the last dinner was in sight. This also had to do with the discriminatory code, but with possible plans for a Mother-Son Dinner next year, the club could continue the dinner. Other events featured the Big-Little Sister Tea, an event to welcome sophomore girls to Roosevelt, and the Krazy Kake Kontest, a contest in which various groups at Roosevelt bake and decorate cakes encouraging the football team to victory over rival Dowling. There was also the Valentine Sending Service, candy bar sales, and a beautiful baby picture contest. These things were mostly money making projects for the annual Spinsters Spree, the club's main project in the spring.

The officers of the club were Susan Vickery, president; Betsy Stuart, vice-president; June Hill, secretary; and Julia Graham, treasurer. Mrs. Mary Seaver was the sponsor.

Serving as committee heads were Leesa Christensen and Ellen Kelly, assembly; Ann Wilson and Jackie West, pep club; Reylon Meeks and Anne Paxton, homeroom coordinators; Lori Kelderman and Sue Ver Steeg, election; Barb Betts and Jane Brenton.

Mark Rosen picked as Man of the Year

"European Extravaganza" was the theme for the Girls' Club annual Spinsters Spree held Saturday evening, March 12. Nine decorated booths representing various countries were placed in the boys' gym. Music was provided by "Sidestreets," and a new added feature included a roaming candid photographer.

To highlight the dance, Senior Mark Rosen was crowned Man of the Year before 200 couples. The three other candidates were Craig Canine, Dave Everett, and Carlos Richardson. The four were introduced to the student body during the Spree assembly the morning of March 11.

Senior Cindi Abrams, Chairman of Girl's Club Social Committee, was in charge of the overall planning for the dance. Other committee chairmen were responsible for the booths, and the officers arranged the group and decorations.

Commented Cindi about the planning of Spree, "Like any big job, it was a lot of work, but I had so many people helping me, so it was lots of fun. It's hard each year to come up with new ideas for a dance, but I think we did a great job this time."

Spring Student Council has busy semester

The spring Student Council sponsored one of the biggest and most successful events of the year, by holding the second annual Fine Arts Fair on Saturday April 30. Over 50 exhibitions ranging from sculpture, paintings, and photography to several musical presentations and a Mime performance were featured on the west campus noon to 4 p.m. The Arts Fair idea was born last year to display Roosevelt's talented art department to faculty and students as well as the public.

In a successful attempt to stop a proposal to place a softball diamond on the west campus, the council petitioned students, teachers, and residents of the Roosevelt area.

Lack of interest by the student body folded the superstars competition and fun night, both sponsored by the spring council.

The spring forum also voted to change its name back to the original student council.

The officers were Jennifer Vickery, president; Jane Mitchell, first vice president; Cathy Riddley, second vice president; and Jim Hansen, secretary.

Theatre Roosevelt sparkles in 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'

Unlike past years, Theatre Roosevelt did not produce a musical as their spring play. Instead the group, under the direction of Mr. R. C. Anderson, tried its hand at a Shakespearean comedy, "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The production was presented April 29 and 30.

Besides mastering the basic elements of this difficult play, a major goal of the cast and crews was "To bring the play to the audience." This goal was accomplished by the addition of song, dance, an extended stage, and a surrealistic set.

According to one member of the cast, "If the audience enjoyed the production even half as much as we did, then it was a success."

Student assistants help administration, librarians, and school nurse

Handling all of the incoming phone calls, running errands for the administration, tracking down students in classes and many other jobs would be much, much more than Mrs. Maertz, Mrs. Ashe, and Mrs. Robinette could handle alone, so 13 students have given up their study hall time to help out.

Students helping in the library help replace the books to the proper shelves, help check out books, magazines and other library resources, and do other odd jobs to help the librarians.

The nurse's assistants are there to take care of the office while Mrs. Anhorn must leave for a moment, or to help with a few minor cases that are brought to be treated by the nurse every day.

Yearbook parody constructed in Action magazine

A photo release straight from Action magazine shows Sally Spiffy (Ricky Dyer), Connie Nifty (Randy Beers) and Nelly Neato (Larry Grewell) working on the yearbook for the year 2027.

The 36 page Action magazine, published by the Journalism 3 class, was headed by Randy Beers, editor; and Lori Lytle, assistant editor.

The 13th volume of the magazine included a 13 page parody, written by the class, on what a yearbook might be like in the year 2027. The other pages were filled with poetry, fiction, non-fiction, and art work submitted by other Roosevelt students.

The staff members included Mike Bagley, Ann Wilson, and Aaron Johnson, in charge of fiction; Larry Grewell, and Ricky Dyer, head of non-fiction; and Roxanne Elings, poetry section. These students read over the submitted material and chose the manuscripts used for publication, and arranged the layouts.

Donna Smith was the art editor, in charge of the cover and art work; and Dave Brauer served as business manager. Donna and Mike also took all the pictures used in the magazine.

1977 yearbook staff strives for original and creative book

Under the supervision of editors Jeanine Agnew and Ann Wilson, 45 staff members put in many hours during study halls and after school to create the 1977 yearbook.

In addition to the given budget, the staff raised money by selling patron ads to parents. This money was used for such added features as using color on seven spreads, using special effect pictures, and creative division pages.

Jeanine and Ann wanted to try to show more than just events happening at school, so they added features concerning fashion, current events, and spare time activities.

An unusual amount of sophomores and juniors applied for the many positions on the staff.

In the activities section, section editor Andi Hirsch covered other activities such as extra trips in which many Roosevelt students take advantage, such as the United Nations trip, the FSL European trip, and the Guthrie Trip.

Junior editor Cindi Abrams and

stated written theme.

The photography staff was kept extremely busy with seemingly never ending requests for pictures. This staff was managed by Mark Holle.

Other section editors were Sports,

Jane Brenton; Seniors, Shelly Stetson; Ad Manager, Karen Anderson; Copy Editor, Jackie Bergh; and Index, Pam Dickinson.

Fall Roundup keeps school informed with bimonthly issues

The fall Roundup staff was headed by Dave Brauer as editor and Ann Wilson as managing editor. The Journalism II class was quite large first semester, and with the convenience of many workers, the first eight issues of the 54th volume were published smoothly.

The format of the paper was the same as in the past, but the "Roundup Salutes" column was discontinued. "We felt there just wasn't enough room in one section of the paper to salute all the people that deserve recognition," Dave said.

Other positions on the staff were Shelly Stetson ad manager; Glenis Lyon, business and circulation manager; and Mike Bagley, picture editor. The page assistants included Dawn Leanhart, Aaron Johnson, Ricky Dyer, Larry Grewell, Jackie West, and Margaret Boyt.

Roxanne Elings and Jackie West make plans for their next issue of the Roundup.

Seniors compose spring Roundup staff

The second semester Roundup, headed by senior Jackie Bergh, set themselves a goal that they found to be both challenging as well as a bit difficult.

At the opening of second semester, the 13 member all senior staff decided to get coverage of all areas of Roosevelt, keeping readers informed on the many activities centering around the school.

The staff proved to be a good size, with enough members to get good coverage on things of interest to the readers; yet not so many that they got in each others' way," commented Jackie.

Seniors

Senior Frolics presents Roosevelt's rendition of "Cabaret" in assembly

What do you get when you combine the talents of Ellen Kelly, Jane Voigts, Mike Higgins, a three piece band including piano, trombone, and drums, and 37 amature, yet stage hungry seniors? You get the 1977 Senior Frolics production of "Cabaret"!

To anyone who was seated in the audience, one might have thought that the skits, routines, and dances were produced by a professional writer, choreographer, and dance company.

Under the direction of Jane Voigts and Mike Higgins, many numbers were revised from the original movie starring Joel Gray and Liza Minnelli. With intricate dance steps simplified for those seniors who maintain two left feet, Ellen Kelly had the group performing line kicks in perfect timing. With the needed encouragement from Mr. Everett Craft, the cast worked diligently to perfect each number.

Master of ceremonies Higgins opened the show with a welcoming song while mingling with the audience. From that point on, it was a professional show of song, dance and comedy.

Seniors Sue Hammer and Jim Hansen displayed their individual talents at the assembly which was presented to the entire school body.

Highlights of the Frolics included a Robot Theatre, a soloique from Hamlet, and a duet performed by Jane Voigts and Mike Higgins entitled "Money."

Eighty-six seniors honored at PFC banquet

The 1977 Roosevelt Parent Faculty Club sponsored its annual banquet May 3 in the cafeteria to recognize seniors who have made outstanding contributions to Roosevelt in the areas of leadership, achievement, and service.

The categories in which an automatic selection for this honor were being in the top 5% of the class, National Merit finalists and winners, Student Council officers, Girls' Club officers, Senior Class officers, Editors of the yearbook, Captains of athletic teams, and club presidents.

In addition to these, other seniors were selected on the recommendation of department chairmen of activity sponsors for outstanding work in the respective departments. A total of 86 students were presented with certificates.

President of the PFC was Mrs. Dwight James. Mrs. Margaret Robinson read the names of the recipients as Mrs. Betty Hyde handed out the certificates. Both Mr. Bruce Gardner and Mark Rosen, senior class president, spoke to the audience of graduates, friends, and parents.

Those students honored were Cindi Abrams, Mitch Adams, Jeanine Agnew, Renee Andersen, Tom Barr, David Baskerville, Dana Bench, Jackie Bergh, Kim Book, Becky Bordt, Dave Brauer, Larry Burns, Craig Canine, Pam Dickinson, Ross Dickinson, Tami Dodd, Charles Dostale, Dave Everett, Mike Foley, Lafe Fowler, Lesley Gabbert, Alan Gardner, Cindy Garner, Wendell Gibson, Chris Glowacki, Julia Graham, Nancy Green, Melinda Haag, Jim Hansen, Rusty Harned, Mike Higgins, June Hill, Dana Hogan, Sue Hogan, Mike Hopson, Bret Howard, Irving Isaacson, Kathy Johnson, Laurie Keck, Joel Kiess, David Kingsley, Dale Larson, and Mark Leonard.

Seniors say final "aloha" to Roosevelt at senior breakfast

Food, entertainment, and a compatible group of students usually make for a successful gathering. Such was the case when 7 a.m. rolled around on May 20, and the majority of Roosevelt's graduating class piled in to the cafeteria for a fun, and final gathering known as the Senior Breakfast.

The theme "Hawaii" found natives on the loose, tourists on the go, and each participant with brightly colored leis around his neck.

Coffee Cake, donuts, sausage, fruit cup, and breakfast drinks were served to quench the appetites of the hungry while they chatted before receiving their caps, gowns, and seating assignments an hour later at line of march rehearsal.

While the seniors contently munched away on their breakfast, entertainment was provided. Craig Canine and Mitch Adams played selections on their trumpets. Sue Hammer accompanied herself on the guitar as she sang to several selections. Mrs. Egli, a Hawaiian, illustrated, with the help of some members of the audience, a hula dance. A highlight of the morning was the showing of a film taken quite some years ago.

Also to the students enjoyment, Susan Vickery read some selected senior wills and prophecies which were written by seniors about their friends.

Chairman Kathe Linn and her committee worked hard to make this last official senior function a fun and memorable experience.

Class officers make changes in senior activities

Mark Rosen, Eric Miller, Lydia Matthews, Carolyn Ogren, and Ross Dickinson were the selected individuals who were known as the senior class officers. Together they worked with the chairpersons of nine committees in an effort to make the year 1977 a memorable one for those who were graduating.

One successful attempt for the board was the first Class Night. In the past this function had been held during the day in an assembly. The change was for the benefit of the students' parents.

Another first for this occasion was the presentation of the Cress O. Hoyt award at Class Night ceremony. This year's recipient was Susan Vickery for outstanding service to Roosevelt.

New features help create "Spring Madness"

Senior prom is the highest highlight of the year. Everybody makes it a time to remember, because after all, it is the last dance of your high school days. Months of planning and preparing pulled off "Spring Madness" at the Drake Olmstead Center on Saturday May 7 from 8:30 to 11:30. Drake was the new home for prom, which had been held at the Riviera Ballroom in past years.

There was a nationwide trend this year to return to high fashion and style which produced men in tails, canes, hats, and vests. Proms were so done up this year that Time Magazine did a feature story on the dances and said "The partygoers of high school students are reviving and revising that grand time called senior prom."

With a theme like "Spring Madness" ideas for decorations seemed endless with big, bright, bold colors and shapes being used. A huge backdrop, made from several pieces of colored material, hung behind the band "Madness." Large tissue paper flowers were all over every wall, and small roses and candles sat atop the tables. Two punch fountains were the main attractions on the refreshment table.

A new idea was used this year to have two fathers serve as doormen, instead of the usual junior boys. The switch was made because the fathers made more of a formal impression. Mr. James Wilson and Mr. John Martin, clad in black tails and white gloves, held the main doors at the Olmstead.

The prom committee consisted of about ten regular workers headed by class treasurer Carolyn Ogren and sponsored by Mrs. Betty Hyde.

Class of '77 take final steps as highschoolers

The commencement ceremonies for the 1977 graduating class took place on May 24 at 8 p.m. in Vets Auditorium.

Somehow, it seemed that most of the students weren't thinking of it as marking the beginning of a career or college, but more of an end to their high school years.

The speaker for the evening was Dr.

Curtis Page who is a Professor of English at Drake University. He spoke to the class on the topic, "It All Depends on You".

Mr. Earl Bridgewater, Executive Director of Personnel for the Des Moines public schools presented the class for graduation, while Nolden Gentry, a member of the school board awarded the diplomas.

Debbie Scarborough was the '77 class valedictorian out of the 411 students being graduated. Her classmates gave her a standing ovation in acknowledgement of her accomplishment.

One milestone passed, many to look forward to

Top: Graduation day brings about a feeling of mixed emotions in many. Above: Class officers distribute caps and gowns at line of march practice. Right: Leesa Christensen, Mary Clarke, Jeff Conyers, and Kenton Copple take the final steps before becoming high school graduates.

Riders have first losing season in 26 years

Led by senior co-captains Dave Robinson, Bret Howard, Duke Reichardt, and Tom Phipps, the Roosevelt Rough Riders claimed a 2-6 season.

Despite a losing record, many of the Riders were outstanding players. Sophomore Kevin Wilson rushed for a total of 507 yards and was the high scorer with 42 points.

Junior Brad Olson ended his season with 65 tackles and 56 assists. Other valuable tacklers were senior co-captain Tom Phipps and junior Brian Near.

By a wide margin, Senior Dave Robinson was voted "most valuable player." Senior Mike Hopson received the Schropp award for his scholastic achievements and senior Mike Edwards was given the Weidmaier award for outstanding lineman.

This season brought coach Don Prior his first losing record in 26 years of coaching. Although the Riders fought hard throughout the year, time ran out with some very close scores.

The season opener was kicked-off in an away game at Newton. The Rough Riders started the first period with a 7-0 lead but a Newton comeback made the score 14-7 before the half. Despite a valiant Rider effort, Roosevelt was short ended and lost a tough 33-10 defeat.

The first metro game was played against rival Tech. The Riders shut out the Engineers 27-0 with three sophomores combining the Rider points.

The Rough Riders next confronted the East Scarlets who pushed past Roosevelt 22-7.

In an encounter with Dowling, a contender for the 1975-1976 and 1976-1977 state titles, a tough Rider defense held the Maroons to a 20 point advantage, the best Rider effort since 1971.

Now 1-2 in metro play, Roosevelt took on Valley in a season thriller. The Tigers fell to the Rider Power in a 3-0 defeat as sophomore Brian Pidgeon, who kicked for 16 total points this season, made a field goal late in the second period.

The Rough Riders suffered a tough loss next game against the Lincoln Railsplitters. Senior Lafe Fowler scampered for a 21 yard touchdown run in the last seconds of the game. Lincoln made the final score 41-6.

Roosevelt next confronted Hoover in what was to be the most exciting game of the season. The Riders came into the fourth period with a three point advantage, but were surprised in the last seconds as the Huskies overpowered Rider defense with a touchdown. The final score was a heart-breaking 21-17 defeat.

The final game of the season was a match-up with North. In the Rider Homecoming game, senior lineman Mike Edwards picked up and ran the ball for a late touchdown in an effort to keep the Rider offense moving. The Polar Bears claimed the win 19-12 over the hard battled Riders.

Sophomores follow Varsity with 2-6 record

A Dowling player rushes to make a tackle in a game with the Little Riders.

Following in the steps of the Varsity football team, the Sophomore Little Riders came up with a 2-6 season.

They claimed victory over East 24-12 in the third game of the season, and posted a win over North 22-6 in a homecoming victory.

The sophomore team was beaten 12-8 in their effort against Tech. The team also suffered a close loss against Hoover 12-6.

Tim Davis ended his season for the Little Riders being the leading rusher.

In response to his team, Coach Tom Gruening said, "This team is different. They really have a lot of togetherness despite their record. I think this will have a lot of effect on how they will perform for the next two years at Varsity level."

Girls' swim team completes successful season

The Roosevelt girls swim team completed their season with a 6-1 dual meet record suffering their only loss to Hoover, who was rated number one in the metro.

The tankers were led by the talented senior Janet Lindstrom, who with her two first place victories in State wrapped up the Bill Crispin Award given to the outstanding swimmer of the year.

The Riders placed first in district competition with a team total of 318, beating their nearest competitor, Ames, by 64 points. In that meet, 12 girls advanced to state competition. District winners included:

200-yd Med. Relay

B. Minkler, T. LaMair, J. Lindstrom, M. Hill

K. Linn, J. May, A. Hirsch, L. Moore.

In addition, second place finishers were Liz Moore in the 500-yard freestyle, and Karen Gangeness in diving.

In state competition, the girls found themselves in fourth place led by Lindstrom, who scored first place victories in the 200-yd Individual Medley, and the 100-yd butterfly team. Lindstrom was clocked at 2:11.38 in the I.M., breaking the old mark she set last year. She also set a new state record of :59.81 in preliminaries of the 100-yard butterfly.

Other Riders that showed well in state competition included co-captain Kathe Linn, who took second in the 500-yard freestyle and third in the 200-yard freestyle. Co-captain Liz Moore finished fifth in the 500-yard freestyle, and Juli May took fifth in the 50-yard freestyle and seventh in the 100-yard freestyle.

The Fathers Award for outstanding spirit, determination and leadership was presented to Andi Hirsch.

Despite the loss of 12 seniors, the team looks strong with the return of 23 letterwinners.

JV swim team wins district backstroke; four girls letter

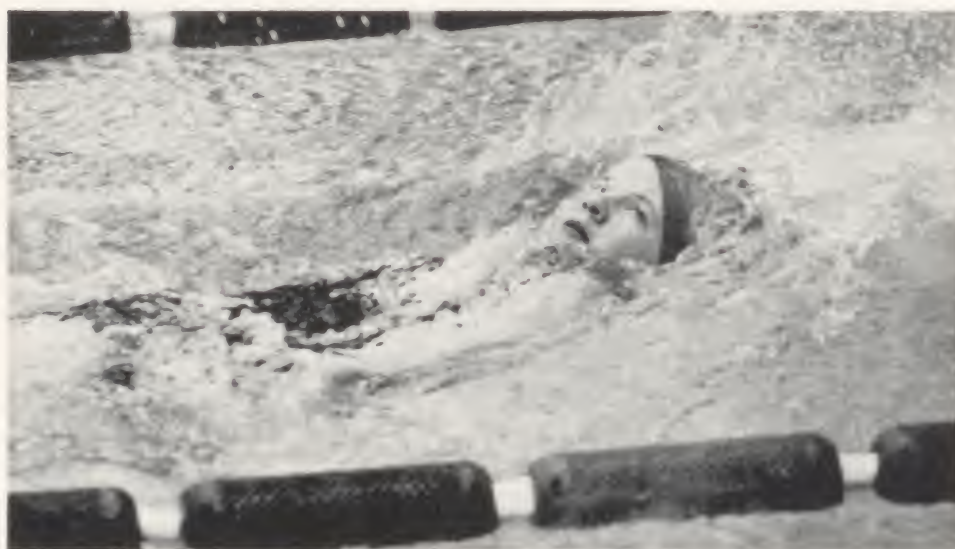

The girls' junior varsity swim program was enlarged to provide much needed experience for future Varsity meets.

The team was coached by Dan Paulson, whose expert guidance helped the girls improve their skills. Coach Paulson commented, "This was the most talented JV team ever at Roosevelt, and we should be seeing many of these ninth and tenth graders on future Varsity teams."

Four girls improved themselves enough during the season to earn a letter. They were junior Kerri Stanfield, sophomore Teri Holm, freshman Karen Kelley, and senior Sheila Ryan.

The girls concluded the season with the District JV meet at Valley. They finished strong by taking first through fourth places in the backstroke.

Coach Paulson commented that the girls worked well together as a team and said that many of them are likely to compete on the Varsity level next season.

JV swimmers faced with tough competition

The boys' junior varsity swim team, directed under the supervision of Coach Dan Paulson, competed in five meets this season.

In their first meet against Hoover, the boys were crushed 134-46. Against a tough Ames team, the tankers pulled out a tie 79-79 in the last few races of the meet.

In a metro meet, the Riders' swimmers gave all they had and swam to their first victory over Lincoln 111-47.

Taking on a tough Valley outfit, the boys lost 108-63.

Ending their season, the team competed against a non-conference team of Cedar Rapids Washington. Washington showed the boys some tough competition and beat the Rider squad 108-44.

The team had 14 members, most of them being freshmen.

Everett sets two records at State meet

The '76-'77 swim season ended with the Varsity boys team taking fourth place at the State meet.

Senior Dave Everett was a triple winner, setting two new individual State records. Everett raced to first place in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 1:42.25. This new record was also the new Beyer Hall Pool record.

In the 500-yard freestyle Everett broke his own State record from last year, bettering his time to 4:41.11. In this year's preliminaries, Everett swam his all-time fastest with a 4:39.20 in this event.

As anchor for the 400-yard freestyle team, Everett paced the Riders to tie the state record set last year by Roosevelt swimmers. The team included seniors Tim Hoffman and Tom Barr, and sophomore Dan Bartlett.

Junior David Jones helped the team score by grabbing third place in the 100-yard backstroke, and ninth position in the 200-yard individual medley.

In District competition, the boys captured first place, beating previously undefeated Hoover 251 to 244½.

Dave Everett became a double winner, setting two new District records. Everett swam the 200-yard freestyle in 1:44.33 and the 500-yard freestyle in 4:44.92.

David Jones was also a double winner. Jones swam the 200-yard individual medley finishing in first place, and set a new district record in the 100-yard backstroke, with the time of :58.41.

The 400-yard freestyle relay team of Everett, Bartlett, Barr, and Tim Hoffman set a new district record time of 3:19.07.

Five Metro records were set this season. Everett set two, one in the 500-yard freestyle and one in the 200-yard individual medley.

Dave Jones set a Metro record in the 100-yard backstroke. Jeff Hoffman set the 100-yard butterfly time, and the 400-yard freestyle relay team of Everett, Bartlett, Barr, and junior Scott Green set a record.

The boys finished third in the Metro and 9-4 overall.

In their dual meets the Riders suffered losses to Hoover, Valley, and Ames. Despite their losing scores, the boys took seven of eleven events against Valley and Ames, and six of eleven events against Hoover.

The Pendry award went to Dave Everett for most valuable swimmer, and the Hickerson award when to Tim Hoffman for leadership.

Hockey team takes fourth place in state

The Roosevelt-Hoover combined hockey team finished their long season with a 12-7-1 record. They took second in the Metro and fourth in state.

Their two largest winning margins came from Ankeny, which they whipped 9-1 at the beginning of the season, and 16-1 towards the end.

The boys beat Urbandale in their first game 7-2, but then lost to them the next two times 4-3 and 4-2 respectively. Urbandale finished first in the Metro and third in state.

Junior Scott Sutherland led the team in goals all through the season.

The team consisted of Scott Hagerman, Kent Paulsen, Burns Davison, Mike Lynch, Bob Mann, John Schmidt, Tim Kinney, Mike Smyth, John Gilman, Mark Doyle, David Nims, Bill Houghton, Ian MacLeod, Jeff Janek, Don Runge, Scott Sutherland, Mike Dobson, Kim Day, and Keith McFadyen. They were coached by Mr. Pete Wozniuk.

Soccer team completes fourth winning season

The Roosevelt soccer team finished its fourth season with a winning record of 4-2-1, with one game left to play. The two losses came from Valley and Lincoln and were lost by only a single point. The tie game was played against Hoover, who gave the Riders a tough match.

In the past, Metro soccer teams have not been limited as to the number of players on a team. This year however, due to more organization, the maximum number for each team was eighteen. This caused all of the schools to either make cuts in the line-up or to form two teams as Valley did.

Senior Tom Barr has been on the team ever since the program started and has helped lead the Riders to victory every season.

This seasons leading scorers were Barr, Junior Dan Roemer, and sophomore Doug Mercer.

Synchronized swim team ties for 2nd in State

The girls synchronized swim team with nine regular members and one alternate, competed to tie for second place in the state meet.

Leslie and Lisa Dishman claimed the title of state champions for a duet team, and finished third and fourth respectively.

This year's soloist was co-captain Janet Lindstrom, and the group team consisted of co-captain Liz Moore, Sara Froyd, Lori Shimp, Barb Minkler, Rita McBride, and Brita Saunders.

This season the team placed third in the Metro meet, with Leslie and Lisa Dishman placing second and third in the stunt competition.

In the stunt meet the girls grabbed second place with Leslie Dishman taking third and Lisa Dishman taking sixth.

Harriers find competition tough

The Roosevelt Harriers ended their season with only one member of their squad qualifying for the State meet.

Senior Mitch Adams placed 3rd in district competition enabling him to qualify for State.

In state competition, Adams finished 14th out of 92 runners. He was also the first metro runner to cross the finish line.

In their first meet of the year, the Riders were off and running against Newton. Newton came out on top only to be challenged by the Riders' powerful Mitch Adams and sophomore Sam Sparks, finishing 3rd and 4th respectively.

In metro runnings, the Riders suffered losses against Valley, Hoover, East, Lincoln, and Dowling.

The Harriers claimed victory over rival North with Sparks out ahead in 5th place.

The Riders ran over Tech with Adams hitting the finish line 2nd and Sparks following at 4th in another Roosevelt win.

In the Tom Karpan Invitational, the Rough Riders finished 7th. Leading the squad was Adams who came in 5th out of 80 runners.

Nearing the end of their season, the Harriers captured 5th place in the Metro Conference meet. Again Adams helped the scoring by placing near the top in 3rd position.

Ending his season as coach, Wayne Silka commented, "The boys did a good job of keeping in there till the finish. The metro had tough competition, and we were always right there alongside."

Not even the coldest of winter days stops Mitch Adams from running.

Girls cross country has winning season

The Varsity Rider girls cross country team had a winning season this fall. In metro runnings they beat five teams by wide margins.

Sophomore Darla Goodrich led the squad in most meets always placing in the top three. At her heels were senior Tracy O'Dell and junior Linda Perry.

The three were an outstanding combination who constantly helped the Rider scoring.

The Harriers finished high in many invitational, one being the Tigerette, where they finished a hard battled 4th. Goodrich and O'Dell finished 2nd and 9th respectively.

Coach Gary Miller anticipates a good season next year, but will miss his "winning" seniors Tracy O'Dell, Kris Swanson, and Gayle Wallace.

Perfection and poise make successful season for gymnasts

Gymnastic Coach Earle Duggan ended his ninth year by taking his gymnasts to state for the ninth consecutive time. Duggan also led his team to their ninth Metro gymnastic crown.

The gymnasts grabbed second place in the state meet, less than three points short of state champions Cedar Rapids, Washington.

Senior Laurie Keck received the honor of being named third all around, leading to this title were her first place finishes in balance beam and vault, second in floor exercise, and fifth in tumbling.

fourth all around, which she achieved by winning tumbling, placing third in floor exercise, and taking sixth in balance beam.

Senior Carole Sargent finished twelfth all around capturing ninth in beam and seventh in tumbling and floor exercise.

Both freshmen Patty Sargent and Cheryl Johnson added points in floor exercise.

Along with their second place state title the girls won first in regional.

Laurie Keck won second place all around, Jody Keck captured third all around, and Carole Sargent stole fifth all around.

In district competition the girls again came out on top winning their district.

Laurie Keck took first all around, Jody Keck finished second, and Carole Sargent placed fifth all around.

After a decade of involvement in Roosevelt gymnastics, Coach Duggan has decided to retire from the sport. Duggan said, "It's a very emotional thing, I've been dealing with extremely disciplined, dignified and intelligent young ladies. They give the ultimate of themselves and they're the warmest, greatest kids in the world."

Wrestlers have 4-7 record, Bob Harris goes to State

One Rider grappler made it to the state wrestling meet this season. Junior Bob Harris qualified in district action by taking second place in the meet held at Dowling.

In the first round action, Harris at 119 pounds, pinned his opponent from Tech in 1:48 minutes. In the second round competition, Harris easily won with a score of 11-4.

In the finals, Harris was beaten by a Dowling opponent, but captured a berth at the state meet.

At state, the grappler was beaten 8-1 by the third place finisher in his weight class.

Junior Rodger Johnson grabbed third place at 138 pounds at the district meet. Johnson came off of a 2-0 win in his third match to find his title.

Junior Tom Schulz, wrestling at 112 pounds, took fourth place in his class after a 2-1 loss in his third match in district action.

The Riders ended the district meet in seventh place.

Captains for this season were seniors Rusty Harned, Dana Hogan, and Jeff Waters.

In dual meets, the boys came up with a winning 4-3 Metro record and a 4-7 overall mark.

The Riders crushed North in their second dual meet of the season, 54-2.

Against Hoover, the grapplers pulled off a victory in one of the most exciting meets of the season. Senior heavy weight Jeff Waters went into his match finding his team down by one point. Waters handled his opponent winning 2-1, and scored three team points to set the Riders ahead 27-25.

In a non-Metro dual meet, the boys lost to West Marshall 27-24. Seniors Dana Hogan at 126 pounds and Charles Ayers at 155 pounds, both pinned their opponents. Bob Harris, Rodger Johnson, Rusty Harned, and Jeff Waters all won by decision.

Against Lincoln, the Rider boys lost 32-19, losing seven of twelve matches. Junior Harvey Davis won 4-1 at 105 pounds, Harris won 11-2 at 119 pounds, and Hogan won by pinning his opponent in 3:36 minutes. Rodger Johnson also won 6-2, and Waters came out on top 7-5.

Against East, the grapplers won 32-25. Jarris won 5-4, Hogan drew 5-5, Charles Mitchell won 7-6, and Johnson beat his man 2-0.

The Riders were crushed by top rated Dowling 57-6. For the Riders, the only points came from a Harvey Davis draw 2-2, to avoid a shutout.

In a meet against Perry, the Riders lost 32-19. The grapplers started hot, winning their first three matches in a row. Davis won at 105 pounds, Schulz at 112 pounds, and sophomore Mike Scott won by forfeit. The squad then cooled off and won only three of their last nine matches. Hogan drew 5-5 at 132, Ayers won 4-1 at 145, and Waters won 2-1.

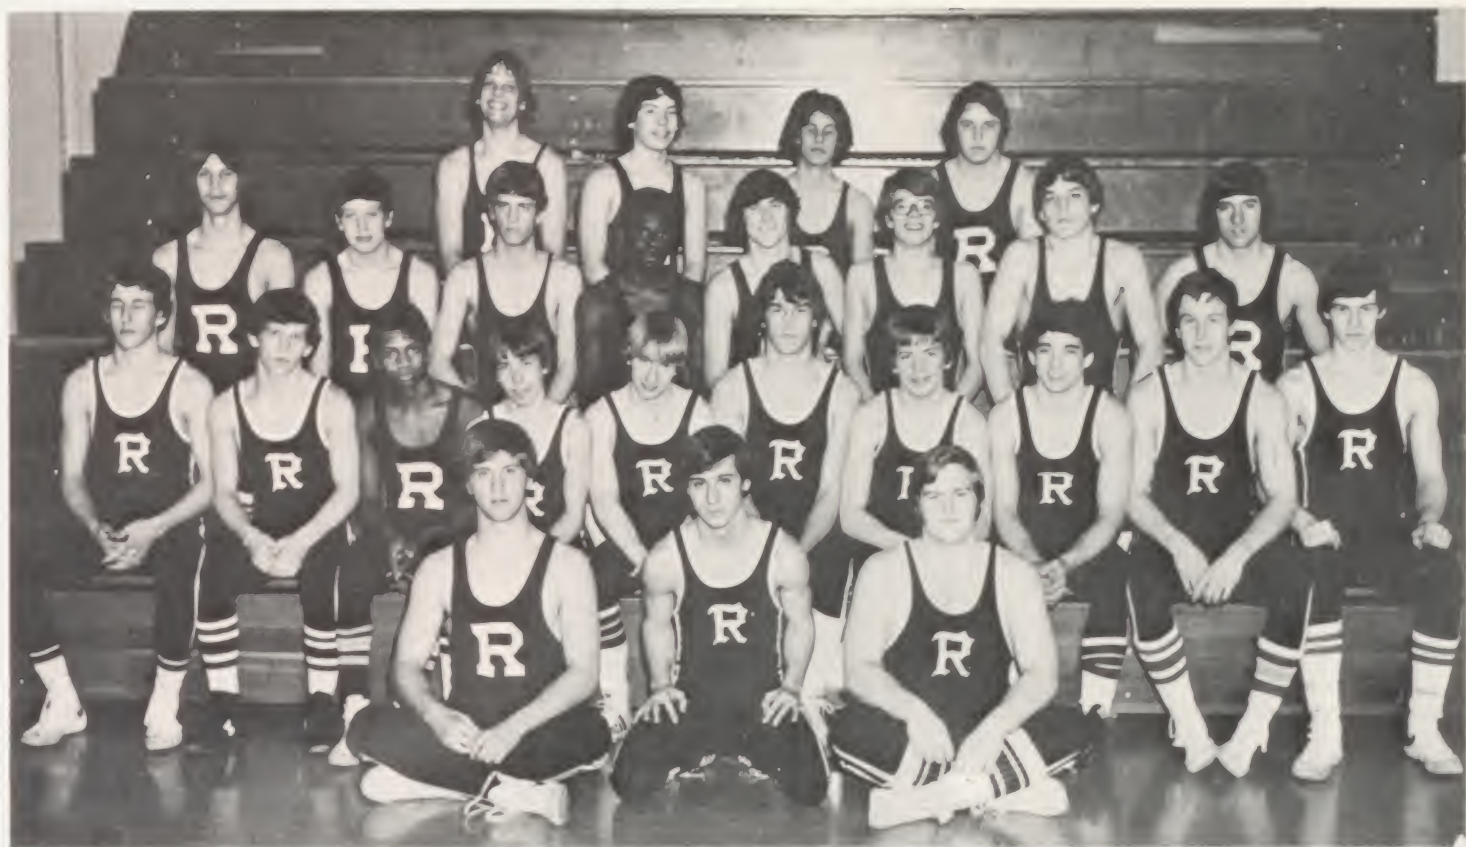

The team lost seven letterwinners to graduation and will find eleven lettermen back next season.

Lower pictures: Roosevelt Riders on the move towards a basket are Mark Radosevich, Dennis Oakley, and Gaylord Houston.

The boys varsity basketball squad ended their season in third place in the Metro conference. Their Metro record was 9-5, and overall 11-8.

Senior Carlos Richardson led the Riders averaging 14 points a game. Junior Mark Radosevich averaged 12.8, Dennis Oakley 11.8, and Garner Houston had an average of 10.3.

From the floor, junior Gaylord Houston led the team with 52.6 percent shooting, and Oakley and Richardson followed with 51.9 percent and 50.4 percent respectively. On the free throw line Gaylord Houston led with 64 percent and Oakley was next with 55 percent. In rebounding, Richardson led the team with 9.8 a game. Gaylord Houston jumped for an average of 6.6 rebounds and his brother Garner figured 5.9 a game.

Just beginning their season the Riders lost to Hoover by three points, 72-69. Late in the game the Huskies managed to stop the Rider attack with Radosevich pouring in 24 points.

The cagers downed Tech 63-61 in Metro play with Doyle Collier leading with 21 points.

The Riders slipped past the East Scarlets 70-76 in a game where Richardson scored his all time high of 23 points.

The boys toppled Dowling 62-54 with four players in double figures. Richardson led with 15, Oakley had 14, and Tony Oliver and Radosevich each hit 12.

Row 1: Jon Hay, Craig Worman, Dennis Oakley, Mike Hopson, Mark Radosevich, Doyle Collier. Row 2: Coach Adcock, Brad Jarnigan,

In a non conference match, the Riders ripped by Newton 71-48. Richardson boasted 16 points and Brad Jarnigan followed with 15.

In a spectacular game with rated Marshalltown, the Riders came out on top 71-67. The cagers built a 13 point half time lead, but in the fourth quarter the Bobcats came back to within one point difference. Then Richardson capped the game off by making three free throws in the last 10 seconds. Richardson and Gaylord Houston finished the game with 14 points apiece.

In district play the boys fell to Hoover 62-60. The score was not determined until overtime when a Rider foul clinched the game for Hoover.

Right: Senior Carlos Richardson highly out jumps his opponent to give the Riders the ball and a chance for two points.

Little Riders wind up 10-8, upset 12-1 Marshalltown

The sophomore boys basketball team came out of their season with a winning 8-6 Metro record and a 10-8 overall mark.

Tom Wilson led the Little Riders with 57.3 percent field goals. Mike Davis made 83 field goals, setting him at 53.2 percent from the floor. On the free throw line, Mike Davis shot 81 percent making 47 of 58 attempts. Tom Wilson shot 62 percent from the line while Brian Billingsley followed at 61.9 percent.

Leading the cagers in points was Greg Price and Mike Davis with an average of 12 points a game. Steve Bennett added an average of 9.2 points a game and Tom Wilson threw in an average of 8.7 a game.

Steve Bennett rebounded an average of 9.5 balls a game, while Mike Davis grabbed 8.6 a game and Kevin Wilson 6.5.

Near the close of the season the cagers were upended by Newton 64-57 with Steve Bennett and Kevin Davis scoring 13 points each. In the season thriller, the boys trounced past 12-1 Marshalltown 71-68. Scorers were Mike Davis with 18, and Greg Price and Kevin Wilson with 15 points apiece.

Girls and boys JV offers players experience

The girls junior varsity basketball team ended its season with a 1-9 record with a team of 16 juniors.

Candy McClaren led the team with a total of 150 points, for an average of 12.4 points per game. The guard court was led by Barb Minkler who had 71 rebounds and 13 blocked shots.

Julie Sandler and McClaren combined for 47 points to help the Riders to their only victory over East 71-68.

The team netted a season total of 486 points for an average of 48.6 a game. They shot 40 percent from the floor and 45 percent from the line.

Leading the boys junior varsity squad were juniors Craig Worman and Doyle Collier, each having an average of 13 points per game.

The team had an overall record of 4-7, playing all Metro teams plus Johnston and Ankeny.

Coach Tom Long said, "This year the JV was a combination team with the varsity. We kept 17 players on the squad and they practiced against the varsity all the time."

"The JV team gave the underclassmen a chance to get experience so next year they'll be ready for varsity ball," Long said.

Girls varsity has 11-10 winning season

Captains Tracy O'Dell, Colleen Mazzoli, and Nancy Green led the Varsity girls basketball team to an 11-10 winning season.

O'Dell was awarded outstanding forward of the year, and Mazzoli became a second year most valuable guard. Mazzoli was the only player to be named to All-Metro team as her name appeared on the second team. Teammates O'Dell, Green, and sophomore Laura Leonard all received honorable mention.

The girls started their season strongly as they won eight of their eleven games.

Their first win was over rival Dowling with whom they fought neck and neck until the Riders blew the game open. The combined efforts of O'Dell and Leonard netted 34 and 28 points respectively.

The Riders closely nipped Saydel 79-78 as Leonard shot for her all-time high of 37 points.

Against East, the hoopers' balanced scoring led them to their fifth win. O'Dell led Rider scorers with 25 points, and closely behind were Green and Leonard with 24 a piece.

Against Tech, Green bosted the all time Rider high of the year of 44 points, but the Engineers got past, with a final score of 91-88.

In tournament action, the girls beat Indianola 70-66 with Green pacing with 27 points, lost their second to South East Warren, toppled Norwalk 71-64, and concluded their season in the first round of Districts with a loss to Carlisle.

Nancy Green led the forward court with an average of 23 points a game, and O'Dell sank an average of 21.

Green boosted 81 percent from the line, as Leonard followed with 72 percent.

On the guard court, Colleen Mazzoli blocked 59 shots, jumped for 121 rebounds, and stole 35 balls.

Junior Andrea Miller jumped for the most total rebounds of 132, averaging 6.3 a game, and stole 24 balls.

Senior Allison Sidmore White rebounded 45 balls and with quick hands stole 35 balls.

Sophomores end season 6-11

The girls sophomore basketball team found this season to be a rebuilding one with a record of 6-11.

The girls shut out North 51-41 midway through the season and narrowly escaped Hoover 54-53 in the next game. The girls then suffered seven losses in a row until the bad luck ran out and they won their last three games.

The team upended Lincoln 62-54, toppled Hoover 56-37 and finished off North 53-44 in their last game of the season.

Finnessa Billingsley led all scorers with a game average of 17 points, and with her 67 percent free throw average, she had a total of 290 season points. Janice Rife and Carol Hill contributed an average of 10 points a game each. Carole Whitmore aided the Rider effort as she threw in an average of 9 points, and Julie Sturges added 7.6 a game.

On the guard court, Carol Hill showed herself to be as quick as on the forward court. She stole 60 balls and led all rebounders with 161, averaging 9.6 a game, and also had 20 blocked shots.

Girls softball has slow season

The 1976 softball team ended their season with only one win out of 22 games. Captains for the team were juniors Nancy Green, Carrie Runge, and Vicki Ireland.

Green, sophomore Marcia Martens, and freshman Laura Leonard all received honorable mention in the Registers All-Metro team.

The girls only win of the season was over Dallas Center 15-10, in the Saydel tournament.

In the girls first Metro game against North, the Riders were tied with the Polar Bears, but a North base hit put them on top 10-9.

In their second game against North, fate repeated itself and the Rider girls again fell by one point, 7-6.

In the sectional action the girls were beaten by one point by Saydel, 5-4. In this game the girls came off of the field without any errors.

Ten of eleven players will return next year hoping for a more rewarding season.

Several Rider girls go to state track meet

The girls track season showed Roosevelt the best season ever for a track squad according to Coach Gary Miller.

Senior Co-captain Tracy O'Dell qualified for the state meet in the 440, took fourth place in the 220, and sixth place in the 880-yard medley.

Junior Linda Perry qualified and took third in the 440, and helped out in the sixth place finishing 880 medley team. Other members on the 880 medley team were junior Marcia Martens and sophomore Janice Rife.

Sophomore Jody Keck went to state in the high jump and took eighth place, while junior Candy McClaren took ninth place in the softball throw.

Other captains for the season were seniors Colleen Mazzoli, Kris Swanson, and Stephanie Stone.

In the Metro meet, the Riders were nudged out of second place by one half of a point. In that meet, Perry took first in the 440, and O'Dell did the same in the 220. Sophomore Darla Goodrich won the mile and Keck won the high jump. The 880 medley and the 440 relays also won their races.

The girls took fourth place at the Urbandale Invitational, finished third of nine schools in the Valley Relays, and were third of twelve schools in the Adel Tallcorn meet.

This season brought the track team seven new school records.

Carla Tate jumps over hurdles with extreme effort during meet.

Boys run their best ever at city track meet

Five boys qualified for the state track meet this season: Seniors Mitch Adams and Lafe Fowler, and Juniors Clair Evans, Chris Strub, and Mark Williams.

At state, Fowler came in fourth in the 440-yard dash with a time of 49.9 seconds. Evans also placed in the state meet in the long jump where he took fourth with a jump of 22 feet and 5 inches. Adams did not place in the meet, although he did set a new two-mile school record with a time of 9:33:0.

At the city meet the boys ran their best of the year according to Coach Dick Hewins.

Fowler won the 440, took third in the 220 and Strub placed second in the 880 with the time of 1:59:03. Adams won the two-mile with a time of 9:37:12, and Williams placed second in the high jump with a 6 foot, 2 inch leap.

In that meet the boys finished third under Tech and East respectively.

At the district meet, the boys finished in fourth place behind Tech, Hoover, and Valley.

At the Bobcat Invitational, the team took seventh place with Fowler winning the 220, Adams finishing third in the two-mile, and Evans taking third in the long jump.

Captains this season were seniors Mitch Adams and Lafe Fowler.

The girl's golf team ended their season play with a 5-2 record, losing only to Valley and Dowling. The team had three senior captains with Sue Hogan, Pam Dickinson, and Sarah Child.

Coach Don Prior said, "This has been one of the best, well rounded teams I have ever coached. Any one of the girls could have been a medalist at any meet."

The team placed second in sectional play with Sue Hogan leading the Riders with a score of 92, to bring the team total to 387, 40 strokes better than third place Hoover.

Unfortunately Roosevelt was placed in the same district with the team that won state last year, so even with a good team total of 392, it was not enough to advance on to state competition.

Mr. Prior went on to say that "It will be sad to lose so many seniors, but we still have sophomores and some promising freshmen, including Diana Dickinson who lettered this year."

Boys golf ends season 8-1, ties for first place in Metro

The boys golf team had a very good season after an early loss to Dowling. This left the team with a Metro record of six wins and one loss, which placed them in a three way tie for first place with Valley and Dowling.

In all matches, the Riders shot to an 8-1 record, finishing third in the Valley Classic, second in the sectional tournament and fifth in district play.

Coach Tom Long, in his third season, stated that from the 35 boys who came out, it was difficult to fill the three spots vacated by the seniors of last year. The openings were filled by freshman David Nims, and juniors Greg Harscher and Ricky Robertson.

The season had many highlights. Senior Brad Chiafos scored a hole in one in a practice round at Willow Creek, a two stroke margin of victory over Valley to end their long time consecutive Metro victory, and a three under par metalist round by Brian Pidgeon to move the Riders into district play.

At districts, the Riders, who were favored to advance on to state, found it difficult to compete with a two hour rain delay. The team came away with a disappointing fifth place. Captain Wendell Gibson's score of 74 missed going individually to state by two strokes.

The Riders should show strength again next year because they are only losing one senior from the starting six players.

Boys tennis squad achieves metro crown

The 1977 boys tennis squad achieved its metro crown once again this year. The boys had a 7-0 metro mark and an 11-0 overall record.

This makes their running metro record 71-1 since 1969.

In State tournament action, senior co-captain John Stauffer captured the singles title after winning his final match 6-2, 6-4 over Jim Miller from West Waterloo.

Stauffer won his first three matches only losing one game. He overcame Chuck Hull from Hoover easily 6-0, 6-0.

In State doubles action, senior co-captain Kevin Parks and sophomore Brad Davidson captured the runner-up title.

In the finals, the second seeded duo was beaten 6-3, 7-6 by Walhert of Dubuque.

The duo put away Sioux City in the semi-final round and easily beat Walhert of Dubuque in the quarters.

In District action, Stauffer beat Hoover's Hull in the final round 6-3, 6-0.

John Fitzsimmons captured the state consolation singles title.

Parks and Davidson won their final over Hoover 6-1, 6-1.

In dual meet competition, the boys won eight of their 11 dual meets 9-0.

The Riders won the Bobcat Invitational beating second place West Waterloo.

Girls tennis remains undefeated; Team wins sectionals and districts

The Rider girls tennis squad had another undefeated tennis season stretching their record to 41-0.

In metro action, the girls went 7-0 winning six of the matchups 9-0.

In conference competition, the girls were 9-0.

The State tennis meet brought two Rider teams to the championship round.

Second seeded junior Elyse Rabinowitz lost her final match to Ann McKay of Walhert Dubuque, 6-4, 6-3.

Rabinowitz won her semi-final match 6-3, 6-4, and her quarter final round an easy 6-1, 6-1.

Third seeded duo of seniors Jane Brenton and Gayle Wallace won their quarter final match 6-2, 7-5, upset the number two seed from Lincoln 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, and were beaten in the final round 6-2, 6-1.

Other State qualifiers seniors Sandra Kelley and Shelly Stetson lost their semi-final match to Walhert Dubuque, and went on to beat Lincoln for third place in the meet.

In District action, Rabinowitz took the title winning her finals match 7-5, 6-1.

In doubles, Brenton-Wallace upset the number one RHS team of Kelley-Stetson 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

In Sectional play, Rabinowitz won her final match 7-5, 6-3, while Kelley-Stetson beat Brenton-Wallace.

During metro play, the girls gave up only one match to Lincoln. The first doubles team of Kelley-Stetson were beaten 6-3, 7-6.

Graduating this year are six four year letter winners. Seniors Shelly Stetson, Sandra Kelley, Jane Brenton, Gayle Wallace, Lydia Matthews and Janet Mark will end their high school tennis careers with an unbeaten four year team record.

1976 varsity baseball ends with season record of 13-14

The 1976 varsity baseball team ended their season with a 6-8 Metro mark and a 13-14 overall record.

Sophomore Mark Radosevich was named to the first All-Metro team as utility player.

Senior Steve Johnson was named to the second All-Metro team as first baseman.

Honorable mention was given to seniors Larry Beals and Marty Kenworthy, junior Randy Morris, and sophomore John Robinson.

The Riders' most valuable player was Radosevich, and captains were Johnson and Beals.

Radosevich led the batting averages with .345. He was followed by Robinson, who had a .320, and Beals, who boasted a .319 batting average.

In the Riders second game of the season they ousted a rated Marshalltown team 2-1.

In the eighth inning Radosevich hit the first pitch for a home run which ended the game.

In a Metro game against East the boys crushed their competition 14-5.

A strong fifth inning rally was led by sophomore Brad Olson, who hit a two-run homer putting the Rough Riders ahead 12-4.

In the Saydel tournament the team won two of their three games, taking third place.

The Rider's last win of the season was against Hoover, a team they easily beat 6-1. Radosevich pitched the game, striking out twelve Huskies.

Junior Paul Morinello's nine stolen bases made him the team leader for the season.

Junior Mike Smyth headed the RBI department with a total of 24 for the year.

Administering over a student body of 1,209 students is a rough job that is handled by Principal Bruce Gardner, Vice Principal Jerald Curnutt and Vice Principal Betty Hyde.

Mr. Gardner is in charge of developing a curriculum suitable for the students' needs as well as to utilize the talents of the staff. As one of his other many jobs, Mr. Gardner must plan a budget for the school and handle the financial matters.

Disciplining the junior class and sophomore boys is a responsibility for which Mr. Curnutt is well known. His firm commanding voice and his searching eyes have reprimanded and straightened out quite a few students during the year.

Supervising over the athletic events, assisting new teachers and developing a school calendar are some of Mr.

Curnutt's other responsibilities.

Coordinating student activities such as Student Council, clubs, and co-curricular activities is a very time consuming job for Mrs. Hyde. She also handles all of the senior activities and works with the senior officers. In addition she handles the discipline and attendance problems for the senior class and sophomore girls.

Right: Mr. Bruce Gardner is always eager to assist the many people that come to ask him questions during the day. Below: Supervising athletic events is a responsibility of Mr. Curnutt, who is keeping an eye on the crowd and the game as he and Mr. Koch watch a basketball game.

Many of the school board's meetings focused on the problem of desegregation for next year.

Counseling dept. offers advice for present as well as future

"I am here to help," the often heard quote of a former Roosevelt principal lives on as the driving force of the counseling department.

Staffed by four counselors and three aides, the Roosevelt counseling office concerns itself with helping students shape their future lives as well as aiding them in the adjustments to high school life at Roosevelt.

The department administers the self-scheduling system and offers counseling services ranging from job conferences and informal sessions about personal or scheduling problems to meetings held with each sophomore to plan the courses he will take while at Roosevelt.

In the scheduling area, the newest program of the counseling office is the priority number system recently introduced to eliminate the problems of long lines and major grade level divisions created by the old system of scheduling during a single time slot for each grade level.

Under the new system, the time that each student registers is determined by his assigned priority number, a figure calculated on the basis of how difficult it is to arrange his course selections into a workable schedule.

Right: Responsible for coordinating pupil services, Mrs. Mary Seaver also serves as Girls' Club sponsor. Below: Mr. Belford Walker and Mr. Corwin Walden discuss the new scheduling system. Lower right: New to the counseling staff, Mrs. Stella Schroeder looks over some counseling material.

English section offers wide range of interesting classes and teachers

Individualized reading and composition were the two most popular English classes for the year, according to Mrs. Margaret Robinson, English department head. Enrollment was good, possibly because of the large number of juniors and seniors enrolled in two English classes daily.

Tenth grade English was changed from four nine-week classes to two semester classes including speech, composition, and nonfiction in the fall and speech, composition, and fiction in the spring.

Due to an increasing demand, three classes of ASP English were offered to Roosevelt seniors.

Mrs. Joyce Fant was elected as coordinator of a new Sophomore Student Tutoring program in English. Volunteers from Drake, the Retired Teachers association, RSVP, and other community organizations worked on a one to one basis with students involved in the program.

Good elective system seen in area of Social Science

Roosevelt is proud of its fine Social Studies program and Mr. Keith Carlson, department head, hopes that it will be possible to "maintain the flexibilities and the good academic standing" that the Social Studies department now enjoys.

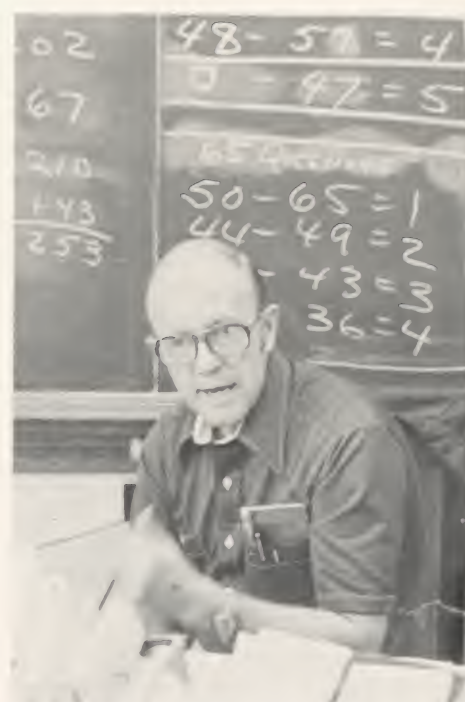

This department provides "a good elective system," allowing Roosevelt students to choose from a wide variety of interesting classes.

With the possible introduction of ninth graders to Roosevelt will come a "better articulated world history program." However, no changes are expected in the immediate future.

Two new books are in the works as well. A committee has been formed to prepare an economics text for 1977 and a government book is being planned for 1978.

Inside experience highlights language section

There is much more to learning a foreign language than just being able to conjugate verbs and knowing how to make nouns and adjectives agree.

Mr. Fred Pratt, Mr. Gary Thelen, Mr. David Graham, Mrs. Joyce Fant, and Mrs. Simone Soria provide their students with a well balanced language program. Not only are written and oral fluency achieved, but knowledge of the people, the culture, and the country of each language is also gained.

Besides the textbook material, students sample foods from foreign countries, listen to guest speakers, watch films, and sing in other languages.

Top right: New to the RHS language department, Mrs. Soria provided a definite asset as part of the faculty. Right: Mr. Thelen emphasizes conversational French in his classes, ne c'est pas? Lower right: Mr. Pratt enjoys a good laugh in his Spanish class. Students meet challenges in relaxing atmosphere

Many students in Roosevelt's art department participated in the 1977 Scholastic Art Awards Exhibition sponsored by Brandeis. Senior Lydia Mathews was awarded the National Hallmark Award. Eleven Roosevelt students received National Honors, and sixteen received Regional Honors. Students also entered their works in the Art Center's Senior Show and Roosevelt's Arts Fair.

Enrollment in vocal music courses was steady. However, due to low enrollment, Music Theory was offered only one semester.

According to band director Larry Green, more Roosevelt students are becoming involved in instrumental music at college level. Therefore the music department has instigated a more suitable curriculum for such students.

Emphasis held on basic and complex in science area.

Roosevelt offers a wide range of science classes reaching from the very basic to the more complex.

Over the past two years, there has been a constant flow in the number of students taking biology and chemistry; however, enrollment in physical science has been down slightly. Unfortunately, enrollment in environmental science has been low.

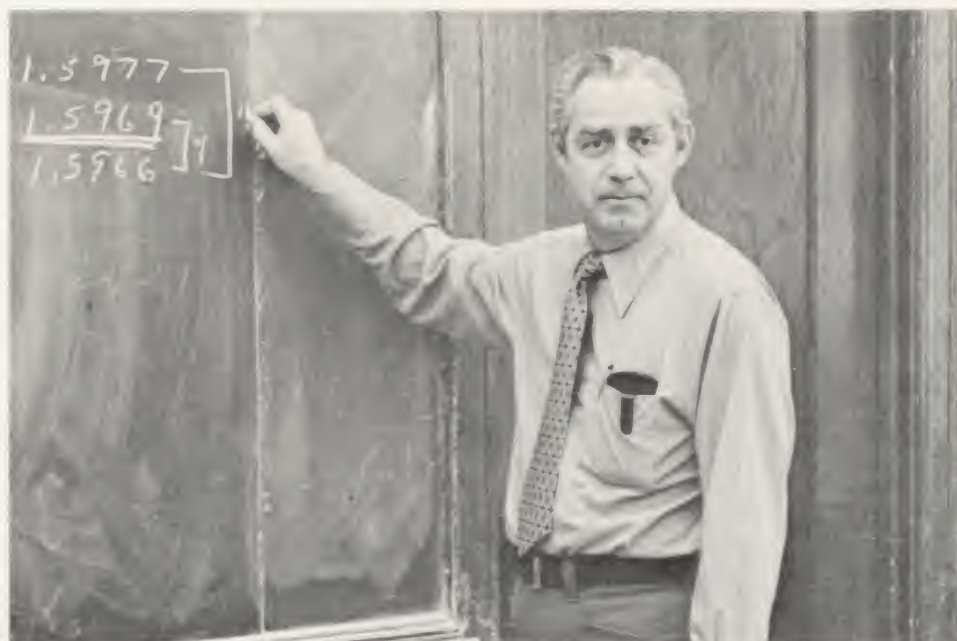

Two new and fairly unique courses are now in the planning stage for future science classes. They are "Practical Aspects of Field Biology" and "Human Population Ecology."

Students encouraged to continue math

If you've been trying to compute the value of pi, searching for some quadratic equations, or have just been feeling the urge to factor some polynomials, then the Roosevelt math department is the place to check into.

"Fifty-two percent of Roosevelt's students are pursuing some sort of math class this year," stated department head Mr. Clyde Anderson.

Although interest is shifting somewhat toward applied courses such as business skills, the math department is still focusing on college preparation.

A new math class, focusing on practical applications of math, is being taught by Mrs. Caroline Egli for the first time. During the second semester, the class is studying math application in careers by way of individualized study.

Business department offers several classes

As described by Miss Connie Feist and Mr. Gene Kiekhaefer, the business department at Roosevelt combines a number of courses in areas that can be used for college preparation, personal application, or future vocational training. Various levels of accounting, typing and shorthand are offered by the department, as well as classes in consumer business, salesmanship, notehand, business law, secretarial skills, and business math. In addition, the department's Office and Distributive Education programs provide students with the chance to combine class work and on the job training. Despite declining enrollment in the school as a whole, enrollment in the business area is staying fairly constant and the department's Office Education club is the largest in the city.

Industrial Arts and Home Economics teach varied practical backgrounds

"What we have to offer is a necessity in a society as technical as ours has become," said Mr. Larry Stokka of the industrial arts department. To provide students with a varied industrial arts background that can be applied to anything from around the house to future vocational areas, the department offers courses in woodworking, electricity, metal working, and drafting all at varying levels of sophistication.

The home economics department offers several variety of classes to choose from, including clothing, foods, and personal family living. The department prepares both boys and girls for when they leave home and are on their own. Some of the classes offer a second level, after the basic course is completed.

Something for everyone in P.E.

One class at Roosevelt that is mandatory for all students, yet considered an enjoyable break in the day is physical education.

Roosevelt was the first high school in Des Moines to have co-ed P.E. classes, even before it became law.

The P.E. program offers a wide range of physical activities and special mini-courses. For those who enjoy the outdoors; horseback riding, backpacking, archery, tennis, and golf are offered. Indoor activities include basketball, volleyball, weight lifting, and ping pong. Each course is designed to allow individual growth and development.

As Mr. Robert Anderson, department head commented, "It's the second best class only to lunch."

Safe driving is no accident

Driving around in a car under a "student driver" sign can be a terrifying experience for some, and for others, participating in the driver education program is nothing but a dream come true.

Driver education is offered first semester only with about 324 students enrolled in the class. The students are required to attend at least 30 class hours and six driving hours, and all students are given the opportunity to use a simulator.

The driver education schedule rotates on a six day cycle, and there are six teachers. Three days are spent in class, one in the car, one in simulator, and one either in study hall or P.E. during the cycle.

At the end of the semester, each passing student is presented with a certificate verifying his achievement. On January 26, many were off to pick up their new temporary licenses, while others awaited their sixteenth birthdays.

Capable helpers aid administration

The counseling office might be a place of total chaos if Mrs. Marian Kempkes, known as the "traffic director", were not there to channel the confusion.

Mrs. Lillie Eckman, registrar, has a full time job preparing transcripts and keeping academic records of each student.

Helping in the Career Information Center and with college material is Miss Barbara Crouthamel.

In the main office, Mrs. Dolores Maertz has various responsibilities including typing bulletins, administering the budget, and among other jobs, taking dictation from Mr. Gardner and Mr. Curnutt.

Mrs. Eunice Ash, attendance clerk, records an average of 147 absences daily. All the money and accounts for Roosevelt are handled by Mrs. Shirley Robinette.

Behind the scene action at RHS; library takes on rapid growth

An increase in the number and selection of paperback books has been a recent accomplishment of the Roosevelt library. This emphasis has been made because of the rising popularity of paperbacks as opposed to the higher expense of hardback books.

Music lovers with a flair for history will enjoy the "Recorded Anthology of American Music", a 100 record set that traces the history of America through its music as an added bonus to the library.

A further boon was the purchase of several hundred cassette tapes ranging from Greek mythology to New Orleans jazz.

Mrs. Lorraine Hutson, who is responsible for the audio visual equipment, also does lettering, dry mounting and duplication of tapes. Supervising the VTR equipment and crew is done by Mrs. Ruby Wells. In room 219, Mrs. Lois Brown helps students find supplementary books.

School nurse does more than just write passes

Mrs. Eve Anhorn, school nurse, sees an average of 53 patients a day. Although there has been some illness, accidents have been minimal this year.

Student nurses from Methodist Hospital have visited on three occasions and spend an entire day observing and learning about the sort of work a school nurse performs.

Mrs. Anhorn did volunteer work at a swine flu immunization clinic at Edmunds elementary school. She is also on guard for a measles epidemic. So far there have been no cases, but she is prepared to move in rapidly and set up a clinic if an outbreak arises.

In the spring, Mrs. Anhorn polled a cross-section of students in an effort to set up a successful health education program. She feels that better results will be obtained if students opinions are heard and responded to. She hopes to have classes set up for the 1977-78 school year.

Mrs. Eve Anhorn talks to just one of her average of 53 patients a day.

Students find study halls a quiet place to study

Despite the buzz of conversation, the shouts of joy from the football players, and the wham of balls from the gym below, study hall in the student center seems to be a good place to study.

Students wanting a quieter studying atmosphere, however, could go to the library or cafeteria.

Study hall for sophomores is supervised by Mrs. Iona Lyman in room 106. Study hall for juniors and seniors is supervised by Mrs. Vera Stauffer.

Custodians and cooks are active

The title of Head Custodian changed hands in the middle of the school year. The new custodian, formerly of Hiatt Junior High School, is Mr. Frank Uhlman.

Mr. Bruce Tyler retired on January 7, after having served the Des Moines system for over 28 years.

The janitorial staff consists of 16 day and night custodians. These people are kept busy by, among other things, taking care of the boiler room, tending the grounds, and maintaining the school building.

The cooks, under the supervision of Mrs. Jessie Fairbanks, continued to prepare low-cost nutritious meals for students here as well as for students at Perkins and Rice elementary schools.

According to Mrs. Fairbanks, approximately 11,000 lunches are prepared daily.

The 13 cooks begin preparing the lunches in the morning and work until 3 p.m. each afternoon.

Upper left: Hungry students look over the day's lunch selection in the cafeteria line. Left: Mr. Frank Uhlman reorganizes his desk as he becomes accustomed to Roosevelt surroundings.

As part of Youngers firm belief in the young people of today, a program is offered each year for the Des Moines area schools ... TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls and ADVISORY BOARD for junior and senior boys. These young people selected to represent their schools, are chosen for leadership qualities, high scholastic standings, personal recommendations from school administrators and evaluation from members of the retiring boards, plus their ability and interest in retail and fashion. They participate in special fashion shows during the year, give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter and work in various junior departments each Saturday. Youngers salutes the representatives from ROOSEVELT HIGH SCHOOL for a job very well done.

D.M. AREA MCDONALD'S SALUTE DALE LARSON

Roosevelt's own Dale Larson was selected for this year's McDonald's All-American High School Band, placing him among the year's top 102 high school musicians in the nation. Dale, shown here on the left, was welcomed to the 1976 Tournament of Roses by 1975 Princess Trisha Kinne Hendershott. Pictured at right is Paul Lavalle, director of the All-American Band.

Go Where? You're Kidding!

Now wait a minute . . . we're not kidding. We are dead serious about your future college plans. Drake University offers special advantages for Des Moines students.

Come to Drake and live on campus. Think about the advantages . . . on your own but close enough to home for "emergencies" like borrowing the car or replenishing the bank account at a moment's notice. Think about the advantage you have over the out-of-towners who don't know the ins-and-outs of your hometown.

Think about the many educational advantages at Drake, too. At Drake we have six undergraduate colleges and schools with over 103 major areas of study to choose from. And when your college days are over, we'll even do all we can to get you a job. That's how much our students mean to us.

There's a lot more happening between Forest and University than you realize. Stop by and let's talk about your future. Or, if you're in a hurry, call us at 271-3181.

Go where? Go to Drake, that's where. So, who's kidding!

When school comes to a close each year the joy of being out is a wonderful feeling. The homework, early hours, and lectures all come to an end. But something that also is over are all the sports, activities, dances, and friendships that disappear during the summer, and most of all, one more year of high school life is gone. For seniors, it's all over, only the memories remain. For juniors, they are now ready to come back next year and lead the school. And for sophomores, they have just gotten their first taste of life at Roosevelt. Though high school brings some griefs, the pleasures and good times outweigh them a million to one.

*Sometimes I stop and wonder why can't I let myself enjoy the space I'm in and all the wonderful places I've been.
My eyes are on the future
I can't think about the past my aspirations always exceed my grasp.*

You've got to reach a little bit higher when the light within becomes a fire hey you got to grow you've got to reach a little higher to get a hold on all that you desire stretch your soul and you'll never grow old.

*When the habits of a lifetime become a painful cage
you want to break out.
but you don't know how to change.
You may have a vision
or you may have a friend who will come to you and say these same words again.*
